

Judith R. Peterson (a.k.a. B&T contributor Dr. J), will be having a solo exhibit of her roller derby photography at the National Museum of Roller Skating. The exhibit, called Flat Track Mamas and Roller Babes, looks at the colorful world of roller derby from an insider perspective.

Judith R. Peterson's award-winning photography has been featured in solo shows, and she does weekly photo assignments for South Dakota Public Broadcasting.

Fans of skating, generally, and derby, specifically, are hereby invited. For further information, please contact the National Museum of Roller Skating.
www.rollerskatingmuseum.com
402-483-7551

Where: National Museum of Roller Skating, 4730 South Street, Lincoln, Nebraska 68506

When: July 1 - August 15, 2010